Authentic Collaboration & Real-World Learning

August 30, 2020

Hello STHS and Mt. Tallac Students and Families,

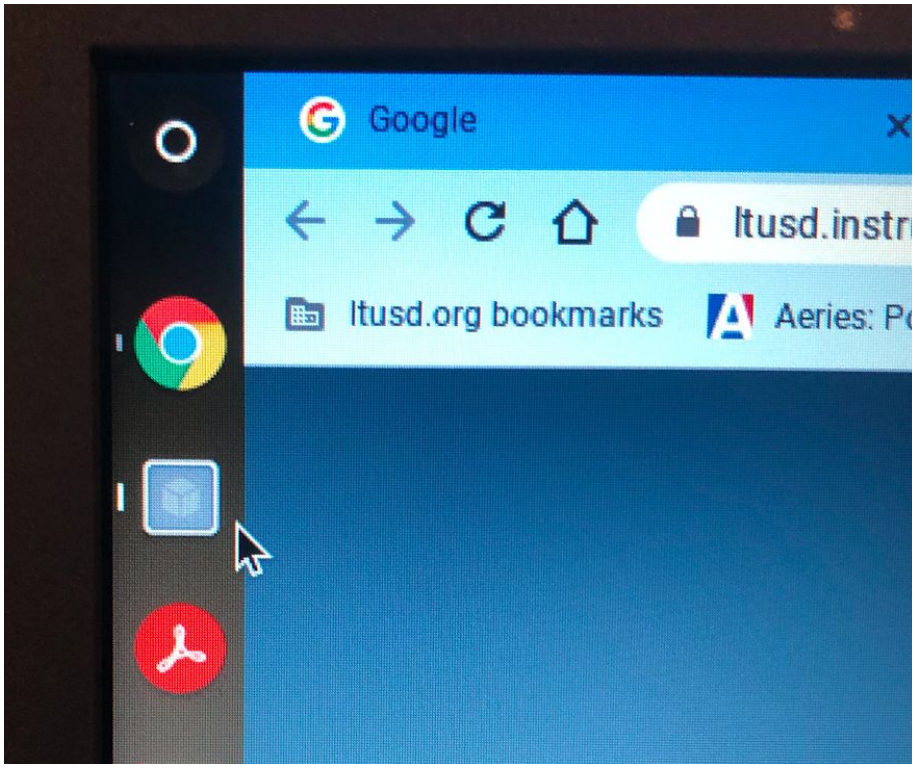
Canvas is now available for student login. Please follow the instructions below. Thank you for your patience and if you are not able to log in yet, please check back in later this evening as the information may take time to load on your Chromebook.

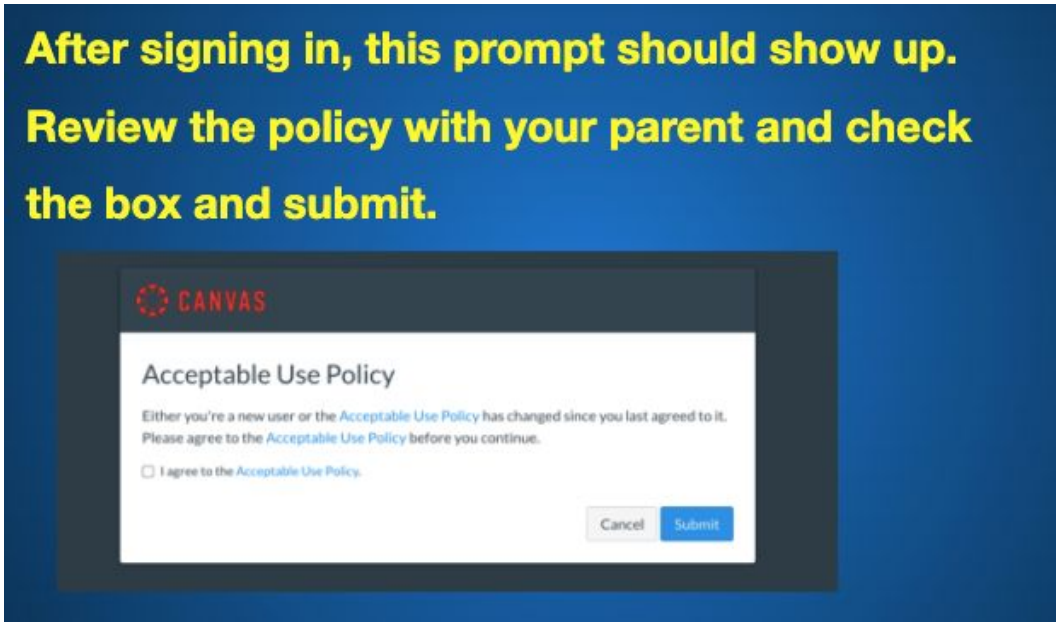
A link to the video of these instructions Canvas Login and Welcome Instructions.

Instructions to get started are below.
Please be patient as Canvas is loading to students. Check back later this evening and tomorrow morning as the data transfer may take a little time. Use this Student Canvas & Virtual Meet Request form if you still cannot log in by tomorrow morning.

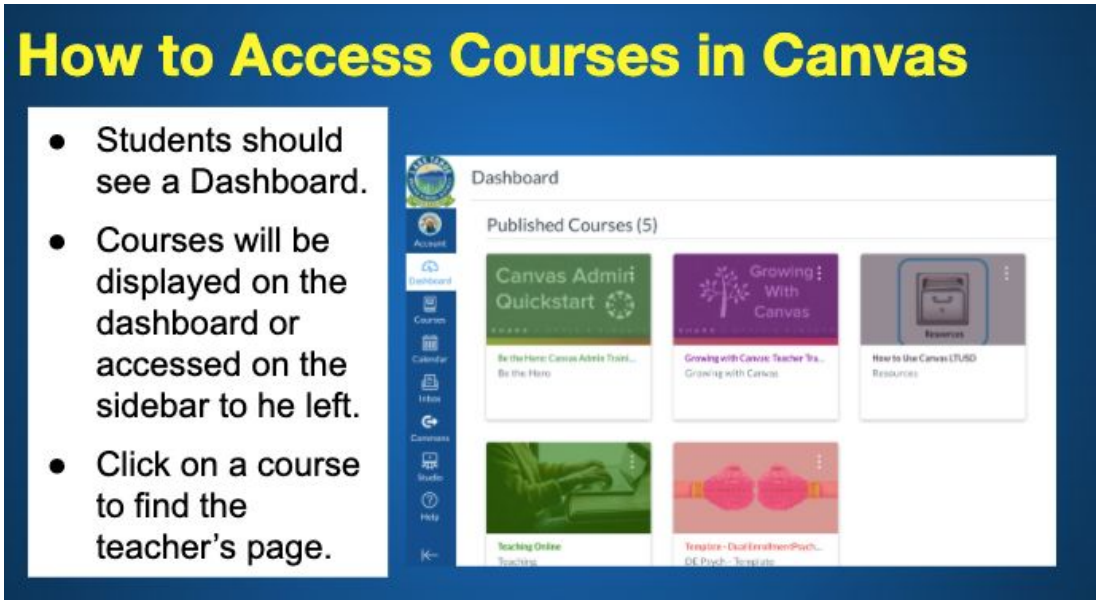
Log into Canvas in one of two ways:

1) Click on the new Canvas icon on your Chromebook and login with school sign in.
2) OR, go to https://ltusd.instructure.com/ The link will prompt you to sign in with Google. Use your school sign in.





- Once you sign in, your courses should be visible on your Canvas Dashboard.
    - Some may be loading tonight so please check back if they are not all there.
- Follow the link to the virtual class meeting on the home page (see sample below).
- Once you have access to your dashboard, you will see your courses on a page that looks like this.



- Review your schedule for 1st through 4th period and note the teacher and course title.
- Click on your first-period class.
- The opening page will go show your teacher's site. See the sample below.
    - Teachers are working on transferring the courses they have been building so just make sure to check back before your class period.

- Check the time that your teacher will be holding virtual meetings during each period.
- As we get going, teachers will give you routines, assignments, and learning activities to work on in addition to your virtual meeting time.

SAMPLE home page- Thank you Ms. Berry!
